Chamber Goals for 2008

On January 31st, at the South Fulton Chamber's Annual Luncheon, chamber CEO, Leslie Hamrick shared the chamber's goals and vision for 2008.

They chamber's goals are to:

- Maximize business partnerships with the education community to improve scholastic achievement
- Encourage small business development by providing educational seminars and counseling throughout the year
- Improve the image of the chamber through brand development to improve community pride and investor confidence
- Facilitate a process to create a 2030 vision for all of south Fulton
- Partner with regional chambers and key entities to lobby for solutions to regional issues as they relate to business development
- Encourage redevelopment of the Fulton Industrial Corridor

The mission of the South Fulton Chamber of Commerce is to promote, advance and support the business, civic and community interests of South Fulton County and to take a leadership role in achieving these interests in an ethical and lawful manner
